

中国对这 6 国试行单方面免签政策

China to allow visa-free entry for 6 nations

根据中国外交部官发布的声明，中国决定对来自法国、德国、意大利、荷兰、西班牙和马来西亚的普通护照持有人试行单边免签证政策。

China has decided to implement a unilateral visa-free policy for ordinary passport holders from France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Spain and Malaysia on a trial basis, according to the statement published on the Chinese Foreign Ministry's social media account.

From Dec. 1, 2023 to Nov. 30, 2024, holders of ordinary passports from the above six countries may enter China visa-free for business, tourism, visiting relatives and friends and transit for no more than 15 days, the online statement said.

People from these six countries who do not meet the visa exemption requirements still need to obtain a visa before entering China, the statement said. It further added that this policy will help promote people to people exchanges, and serve high-quality development and high-level opening-up.

The screenshot shows the official website of the China Consular Service Network (CS.MFA.GOV.CN). The page features a blue header with the site's logo and name. Below the header is a navigation menu with links such as '关于领事' (About Consular), '中国公民出国' (Chinese Citizens Going Abroad), and '外国人来华 Visit China' (Foreigners Coming to China). The main content area displays a notice titled '中国对法、德等6国试行单方面免签政策的通知' (Notice of China's Unilateral Visa-Free Entry Policy for Six Countries). The notice includes the publication date (November 24, 2023) and source (Ministry of Foreign Affairs - Consular). The text of the notice states that China has decided to expand its unilateral visa-free entry policy to include France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Spain, and Malaysia for ordinary passport holders from December 1, 2023, to November 30, 2024, for business, tourism, and transit purposes, provided the stay does not exceed 15 days. It also notes that individuals who do not meet the exemption conditions must still apply for a visa before entry.